

Croatian Through Conversation

This is a language course designed for all those in English-speaking countries who want to acquire a basic knowledge of contemporary spoken Croatian. A phrase-book has been appended to help the tourist. Croatian is the dominant spoken and literary language in western Yugoslavia, including the world-famous Dalmatian coast and Croatian Littoral. The lessons consist of situations in which the learner or tourist may very well find himself. The book is published by Matica iseljenika Hrvatske (The Emigrant Center of Croatia), which is interested in giving people of our descent some information about the language and country of their ancestors. --The author, Zabreb 1972
