

Journal of the New England Water Works Association, Vol. 29: 1915 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Journal of the New England Water Works Association, Vol. 29: 1915 All of the earlier rates were at rates, that is, a fixed price per year covered a certain class of service without any regard to the quantity of water used. The details of such at rates varied some what, but they can be divided broadly into the following classes.
